OVERVIEW

Overlooking the turquoise waters of the Aegean, backed up by hills, Maçakızı is situated on the north side of the Bodrum peninsula in a lovely village called Türkbükü. Adorned with vibrant bougainvilleas and luscious plants Maçakızı sits against the sapphire seas of the Aegean.

It has a mesmerizing setting; simple yet very elegant... The history of the area goes back thousands of years B.C. The most famous being the tomb of King Mausollos of Caria which is one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World as well as the 16th century Castle built by the Knights of St. Peter, sitting proudly on a hill overlooking the twin harbor of Bodrum. With recent renovations and additions, Maçakızı Hotel is your year-round Mediterranean getaway.

HISTORY

Initially, Ayla Emirođlu established a pension and a private beach in 1977 in Bodrum.

Ayla Emirođlu, with a keen eye for all things tranquil and natural; created a haven for all guests. Her original aim to create an inspiring environment for writers, painters, other intellectuals and all, with her bed and breakfast service, continued to evolve and grow, as Bodrum, throughout the years. The seeds of the Maçakızı concept, continues to flourish with the vision and contemporary mind of Ayla's son Sahir. Since 2000, Maçakızı is located in Türkbükü and along with its private and popular beach, it is transformed into a beautiful boutique hotel. This unique heaven is now being carried into the new millennium and further.

ROOMS AND SUITES

Maçakızı has 51 rooms and 22 suites, featuring artwork by renowned Turkish artist Suat Akdemir. 25 Garden View rooms overlook our lush gardens while 26 Sea View rooms offer Aegean vistas framed by hot pink bougainvillea. Our 13 Junior, 3 Sea View & 6 Villa Suites offer understated luxury and ultimate privacy.

All rooms are decorated with modern furnishing, travertine floors with underfloor heating, open plan bathrooms with rain showers. Interiors of suites are redesigned with understated luxury while still maintaining the Bodrum style.
